APOLOGIES	Cllr Horvath, D Cllr Roberts, C Cllr Ward
PUBLIC QUESTION TIME	Mr and Mrs Edwards asked about comments made in past minutes about their kennels, the Clerk advised that a Councillor had asked if approval had been given to the recent planning application the Clerk was not sure and would check the next day then advise Councillors of the position, which she had done and advised that approval had been given. The Chair apologised if this had caused them concern. Jo Durant – Dilhorne Rec Centre constitution mentioned certain groups/bodies and she asked if the PC could confirm that these groups/bodies were no longer in existence. The PC advised that as far as they were aware none existed today. These were Dilhorne Derby and Joan Club, Dilhorne Ladies Fellowship, Dilhorne Youth Club . PSCS Jon Staples told the PC that Police personnel attended the area regularly there are three personnel who cover the area in the 3 shifts. Sam. landlady from Charlie Bassetts advised the PC that she was happy for church goes to use their car park, Clerk to put post on the PC Fb page to advise of this and to ask that people park at bottom of the car park. MATTERS ARISING FROM PREVIOUS MEETINGS	HIGHWAYS ISSUES: General Highways Update – Walchesters Lorries– Mr and Mrs Walchester were told that PC had received concerns in the past from residents about lorries coming through the village. The PC were advised that there are no restrictions on access to their premises, all the lorries have cameras/trackers so can be monitored. They try to divert lorries to top entrance to village (Richmore Hill) but not always possible as not viable financially. Chair stated that the PC understood that they have a business to run and aware no restrictions on access, appreciate they do try and reduce the volume of lorries through the village by using Richmore Hill. Trimpos – no report Grids/drains/potholes – most potholes have been done in the area. Tickhill – no report Footpaths – no issues UNRESOLVED ITEMS: none
